Congressman Lance,

Hello, how are you? Thank You for taking the time to read this letter, I truly appreciate it. My name is (b) (6), from Bridgewater, NJ. I have wanted to be a Navy SEAL as long as I can remember and for some reason it has become very complicated. Last January I was discharged from Recruit Training Command for failing to have a waiver for a 1mm kidney stone, even though I was told 1mm is under the disqualifying size for kidney stones. As I was being discharged I was told that I would be able to re-enlist in the Navy after proving I am kidney stone free. Since then I have been trying to re-enlist in the Navy with Petty Officer (b) (6) at Naval Recruiting Station located at 112 E Front Street North Plainfield, NJ 07060, but every time I make a little progress something goes wrong. I have written down a chronological list of the events that have taken place since my time at Recruit Training Command and it is my hope that you will be able to do whatever you can, to straighten this scenario out and help me fulfill my dream to serve my Country as an elite Navy SEAL. Again I thank you for your time and concern, I truly appreciate everything.

Thank You,

(b) (6)

- September 28, 2012- Given a KUB x-ray that showed no kidney stones.
- October 3, 2012- Given a second letter of clearance from my urologist.
- October 4, 2012- Checked out and given a letter of clearance from my primary physician.
- October 2012- Gave my recruiter all of my letters of clearance as well as my KUB x-ray.
- October 2012- Told by my recruiter that I have to wait a full year after I was discharged from Recruit Training Command to come back and take a physical, after which my recruiter handed me back my x-rays saying USMEPCOM did not need to look at any x-rays.

-January 23, 2013- Scheduled to go to USMEPCOM for a physical for the fourth time and was canceled the night before because USMEPCOM did not have enough paperwork.

-January 24, 2013- Filled in all the paperwork USMEPCOM asked for after which the paperwork was sent up to USMEPCOM to be reviewed.

-February 6, 2013- Was told by my recruiter USMEPCOM will not let me take my physical because they read that I still have kidney stones, even though I gave them my clearance letters from both my doctors.

February 7, 2013-Resent all of the same paperwork to USMEPCOM to show I am clear of kidney stones.

-February 13, 2013- Was told by my recruiter USMEPCOM will not let me take my physical because they saw in an x-ray that shows I still have kidney stones, even though an x-ray was never sent to USMEPCOM.

Re: Maney, Edward
#108341

To Whom It May Concern,

I had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Maney in the office today. He is a very pleasant gentleman who is hoping to join the armed services. He did have a KUB which is an x-ray to look for kidney stones. The KUB was negative for any renal calcifications.

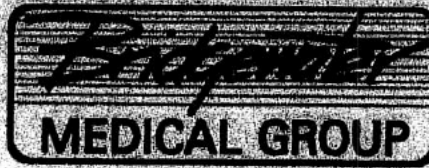

At this point, I would recommend that he is eligible to be enrolled and has no limitations.

Thank you very much. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Sincerely yours,

Neel P. Shah, M.D.
